

6516206378.txt

XM radio has helped me in many ways over the past year. I am a new member of the working class of engineers and commute an hour each way to and from work. XM helps me pass the time listening to the radio without worrying about signal. Their talk radio selections are far different and better then common radio. I pay for this service and it should not be up to the national association of broadcasters to censor my listening. Reject NAB petition 04-160.